Upgrade Passenger Facilities on your Layout

Handle Plenty of Passengers

NEW HO KIT

The focal point of your city scene, the City Station is typical of larger, fancier stations built in important towns across the continent. In addition to standard features like the agent's bay window and waiting room, this handsome building boasts a covered end platform and an attached baggage room. Perfect for serving steam-era heavyweights or diesel-era streamliners, you can complete your station with the Wood Station Shed & Platform (#933-3188, sold separately).

Keep Passengers Out of the Elements

NEW HO KIT

No one wants to get wet waiting for trains! A great addition to any station scene, platforms of this type are right at home in suburban commuter operations, small towns or big cities and will look great with the new City Station (#933-2904, sold separately). The timeless styling fits any era, and modular design allows easy expansion. The kit can be built as a freestanding structure or as an attachment to your station building using the supplied special roof section.

Keep 'em Gleaming

NEW HO KIT

The grandeur of the Rockies, the dazzling Cascades and the beautiful California coast would be lost to passengers if viewed through dirty windows! This all-new nonworking kit is based on the six-brush washers favored by many roads. Large brushes, simulated motor drives, sprayer and rinse nozzles, a washer control house and a detailed base plate with drains are all included.
